

DEPARTMENT REQUIREMENTS: GENERAL TRACK IN POLITICAL SCIENCE.

I. REQUIRED COURSES

	Courses	Grade
A. Economics 201 and 202	ECON 201	_____
	ECON 202	_____
B. 6 Hours from the following courses:	_____	_____
Psychology 101; Sociology/Anthropology 101, 105; Philosophy 170;	_____	_____
Geography 102, 108.

II. Recommended Courses (optional): Statistics 211 and Computer Science 101

III SUB-FIELD REQUIREMENTS

No less than 39 hours are required for graduation; 36 hours must be 200 or above; no more than 42 hours in political science may be counted toward graduation.

	Required Grade	Elective Grade	Elective Grade	Elective Grade
American Government [10s; 20s]	_____	_____	_____	_____
	P.S. 102
Public Policy & Admin. [30s; 40s]	_____	_____	_____	_____
	P.S. 230/240
Comparative Politics [50s]	_____	_____	_____	_____
	P.S. 250
International Relations [60s]	_____	_____	_____	_____
	P.S.260
Political Theory [70s]	_____	_____	_____	_____
	P.S.270/271
Empirical Analysis/Methods [00s]	_____	_____	_____	_____
	P.S. 300
Capstone (required): P.S. 487/488/489	_____	_____	_____	_____
Other (optional): P.S. 491/493	_____	_____	_____	_____

Note: It is recommended that General Political Science Track Majors take no more that three upper division courses in one of the above subfields.

III. REQUIRED MINOR

Students enrolled in the Political Science General Track are required to complete a formal minor in a relevant discipline,. Minor fields available include: Africana studies, economics, geography, history, philosophy, psychology, sociology and anthropology, statistics and/or computer science, business administration, English, communication studies, international studies, leadership studies, mathematics, native American studies, religious studies, Slavic and Eastern European Studies, and the following foreign language minors (French, German, Spanish, Chinese studies, Italian studies, and Russian studies).